

General Terms & Conditions for Online Payments

1. Once a User has accepted these Terms and Conditions, he/ she may register and avail the Services.
2. In these Terms and Conditions, the term "Charge Back" shall mean, approved and settled credit card or net banking purchase transaction(s) which are at any time refused, debited or charged back to merchant account (and shall also include similar debits to Payment Service Provider's accounts (if any)) by the acquiring bank or credit card company for any reason whatsoever, together with the bank fees, penalties and other charges incidental thereto.
3. Server Slow Down/Session Timeout: In case the Website or Payment Service Provider's webpage, that is linked to the Website, is experiencing any server related issues like 'slow down' or 'failure' or 'session timeout', the User shall, before initiating the second payment, check whether his/her Bank Account has been debited or not and accordingly resort to one of the following options:
 - In case the Bank Account appears to be debited, ensure that he/ she does not make the payment twice and immediately thereafter contact the Institute via e-mail or any other mode of contact as provided by the Institute to confirm payment.
 - In case the Bank Account is not debited, the User may initiate a fresh transaction to make payment.
 - However, the User agrees that under no circumstances the Payment Gateway Service Provider shall be held responsible for such fraudulent/duplicate transactions and hence no claims should be raised to Payment Gateway Service Provider. No communication received by the Payment Service Provider(s) in this regards shall be entertained by the Payment Service Provider(s).
4. The Institute and the Payment Service Provider(s) assume no liability whatsoever for any monetary or other damage suffered by the User on account of:
 - The delay, failure, interruption, or corruption of any data or other information transmitted in connection with use of the Payment Gateway or Services in connection thereto; and/ or
 - Any interruption or errors in the operation of the Payment Gateway.
5. The User agrees, understands and confirms that his/ her personal data including without limitation details relating to debit card/ credit card transmitted over the Internet may be susceptible to misuse, hacking, theft and/ or fraud and that the Institute or the Payment Service Provider(s) have no control over such matters.
6. Although all reasonable care has been taken towards guarding against unauthorized use of any information transmitted by the User, the Institute does not represent or guarantee that the use of the Services provided by/ through it will not result in theft and/or unauthorized use of data over the Internet.
7. The Institute, the Payment Service Provider(s) and its affiliates and associates shall not be liable, at any time, for any failure of performance, error, omission, interruption, deletion, defect, delay in operation or transmission, computer virus, communications line failure, theft or destruction or unauthorized access to, alteration of, or use of information contained on the Website.
8. The User will be required to login his/ her own User ID and Password, given by the Institute in order to register and/ or use the Services provided by Institute on the Website. By accepting these Terms and Conditions the User agrees that his/ her User ID and Password are very important pieces of information and it shall be the User's own responsibility to keep them secure and confidential. In furtherance hereof, the User agrees to:-
 - Choose a new password, whenever required for security reasons.
 - Keep his/ her User ID & Password strictly confidential.
 - Be responsible for any transactions made by User under such User ID and Password.

Personal information

St. Francis School understands your desire to protect personal information. We intend to inform you how your personal information will be gathered, tracked, or used, and to give you choices. If choices are not offered on web pages where your personal information is obtained, please select one of the communication channels at the bottom of this statement to indicate your communication preferences.

General Information we gather and track

We use personally identifiable information in the following ways:

- To provide you with information about product upgrades, new products, services, newsletters, informative emails, and research on future product ideas or improvements;
- To assist us in creating content that is relevant to you;
- To provide you with special offers that may be of interest to you;
- To assist us in creating better products and services to meet your needs;
- To allow you to purchase, download, and manage product licenses, obtain access to services or otherwise engage in activities you select;
- To help you quickly find software, services or product information important to you.

With whom we may share your information

St. Francis School collects and uses your personal information to operate the Site and deliver the services you have requested. St. Francis School also uses your personally identifiable information to inform you about other products or services available from St. Francis School and its affiliates. St. Francis School may also contact you via surveys to conduct research about your opinion on current services or potential new services that may be offered. St. Francis School may provide your personally identifiable information to the affiliate that initially referred you to the Site.

St. Francis School does not sell, rent, or lease its customer lists to third parties. St. Francis School may, from time to time, contact you on behalf of external business partners about a particular offering that may be of interest to you. In addition, St. Francis School may retain the services of outside contractors to provide services for us. They may be used to ship products, provide technical support, or handle order processing. We require that these contractors keep customers' personal information secure and confidential and use it only on behalf of St. Francis School.

St. Francis School will disclose your personal information, without notice, only if required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to: (a) comply with legal obligations or process; (b) protect and defend the rights or property of St. Francis School; and (c) act under exigent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of St. Francis School or the public.

Opt out of providing certain information

St. Francis School provides a number of ways for you to opt out of receiving additional information from us or having us share your personal information with our partners. We may offer you these choices at the time you provide your information. If you are on a St. Francis School web page that requires personal information but does not offer communication choices, or if you would like to change your preferences for information you have previously provided, please use one of the communication channels at the bottom of this statement. If you are registering a version of a product that does not provide the capability to indicate your communication preferences, please use one of the communication channels at the bottom of this statement. If you do not wish to continue receiving our email newsletters or bulletins, you can opt out by replying with 'unsubscribe' in the subject line of the email.

Privacy of Children

St. Francis School is committed to protecting the privacy needs of children and encourages parents and guardians to take an active role in the online activities and interests of their children. St. Francis School does not knowingly collect information from children under the age of 13 and does not target its websites to children under 13.

Software Updates Provided Online

St. Francis School provides an online update service to deliver improved versions of our software. These updates are provided to correct operational defects and to add additional features and functionality for users. As part of the software update process, we collect the following information: a statistically unique number (but not a Windows GUID), your serial number, IP address, software version, type of operating system, number of pages and documents created, number of users, installation language, number of days used, relevant file associations, user action logs, and installation and update versioning and control information.

We collect this information to better understand usage patterns of our products and to provide more timely and relevant updates. This information is also used for planning and forecasting server loads, upgrade patterns, licensing, and purchasing trends. Additionally, it is used to generate aggregate statistics about how our software, website, and update services are used, so that we can provide the best possible support to our customers.

Security

We have taken security measures, consistent with international information practices, to protect your personal information. These measures include technical and procedural steps to protect your data from misuse, unauthorized access or disclosure, loss, alteration, or destruction. Credit card information is transmitted using secure socket layer (SSL) encryption.

The personal information that you have provided to us may be transferred to other St. Francis School offices around the world. Also, in certain countries our outside contractors might undertake the collection, transferring, storage and processing of your information.

We make a sincere effort to respond to your requests to update or correct your personal information. If you believe that St. Francis School does not have your current personal information, you can update it by using one of the communication channels at the bottom of this statement.
